

Queen Surf Wins 3-2

First Surfboard Water Polo Match Pleases Crowd at Revival

The Queen Surf team beat the Territorial Beach Patrol in the first game of a revival of surfboard water polo games at the Waikiki Natatorium last night, with a score of 3-2.

A crowd of 500 was delighted with the fast and spirited match which was relived in intensity by the antics of water clowning by Ox Keaulani and others.

The first goal was scored in 18 minutes by Gene Smith, who recently completed a paddle board trip to Kauai. Smith and Gene and Wally Forsyth were the outstanding players for the Queens. On the Beach Patrol, Diamond Martin and John D. Kapiko, Jr., shone as stars with the former scoring the first goal for his team.

Games To Continue

Games will be resumed on Friday night. Teams from Hui Naiu, the Outrigger Club, the University, Halekulani and others are expected to participate. Last night's officials were O. B. Patterson, recorder; Joe Clark, referee and Tom Blake, judge of the course. Lineups were Territorial Beach Patrol; John D. Kapiko, Jr., Solo Mahoe, Diamond Martin, Moses Manuwai, Sam Steamboat, Ox Keaulani, Tommy Leong, Stanley Sang, Ralph Soong, Ken Ozaki.

Queens Surfers: Wallace Forsyth, Gene Forsyth, Cyril Carvalho, Gene Smith, Frank Kennedy, Jack Hague, Edward Huleea, Brownie Barnes.