

Beach Carnival Sports Feature of Club Opening

Official opening of the new Outrigger Canoe club's headquarters at Waikiki beach on Kamehameha Day Wednesday will be featured with an aquatic carnival of sports, it was announced this morning.

Following the more serious dedication in the morning an interesting and colorful water program will be offered starting at 2:30 in the afternoon.

The committees in charge have listed eight competitive events.

The Events

These are outrigger canoe sailing, featuring seven or eight craft from the Kahala club; surfboard sailing, women's surfboard paddling, the blue ribbon open surfboard paddling for any one (amateur or pro) over a triangular course of about two miles, six men canoe paddling, four men canoe paddling, six men canoe tug of war and the Leed's trophy surfboard paddling race along the beach (sans aid of surf).

#

Many valuable prizes have been secured by Chad Dunstan, chairman of the award committee.

Some of the donors include Flanders, Honolulu Star-Bulletin, Walter Macfarlane, Fred H. Kingman, Dawkins Benny Co., and Outrigger club officials and sportsmen.

#

Any one wishing to participate in any of the events may do so by contacting members of the beach committee at the Outrigger Canoe club.

#

Members of the beach committee include Sally Hale, Herb Fox and Tom Blake as co-chairmen, George D. (Dad) Center, Duke Kahana-moku, Gay Harris, Lorrin Thurston, Ed Adolphson, George Brangier, Harold Harvey, Bill Hollinger, Curt Leser, Toots Minville, H. M. Taylor, Art Schofield, Wilfred Godbold and Bill Bowman.