

Surfboard and Canoe Races on Tomorrow

Thousands of spectators are expected to throng the beach around the Outrigger Canoe club tomorrow to witness and even participate in the sports program on the waters off the newly opened clubhouse.

Activities begin at 2 p. m. and an attractive card of six events will be run off with the winners generously awarded by handsome prizes.

Anybody may compete and the affair should easily be the outstanding sports feature of Kamehameha Day's observance.

The committee in charge of the events is composed of Sally Hale, Tom Blake, Herb Fox, Duke Kahamoku, George (Dad) Center, Gay Harris, Lorrin Thurston, Ed Adolphson, George Brangier, Harold Harvey, Bill Hollinger, Curt Leser, Toots Minvielle, H. M. Taylor, Art Schofield, Wilfred Godbold and Bill Bowman.

Officials of the Outrigger club and merchants are donating a majority of the prizes.

The complete program follows:

2 p. m.—Canoe sailing for trophy, surfboard sailing for trophy.

2:30 p. m.—Open surf-riding contest for gold, silver, bronze medals. Fourteen feet board limit. Start from shore—round buoy outside break (placed according to surf conditions) ride and paddle to life-guard tower, once, twice, three times and to shore to win.

3 p. m.—6 man canoe race (6 gold medals to winners). Start from shore (O. C. C.) out to buoy, outside break, ride wave, paddle around life guard tower, once, twice, three times to win.

3:30 p. m.—Girls. Surfboard riding, paddling contest (medals for first, second and third). Start from shore, paddle to break, ride, paddle to share to win.

4 p. m.—4 man canoe race—gold medals to member of winning crew. Start from shore, paddle around buoy outside break, ride wave, paddle to shore to win.

4:15 p. m.—6 man canoe tug-of-war, Eliminations and finals. Six gold medals to winning team.