RED McQUEEN

CRUISING THE SPORTS WAVE

Its very existence was uncertain two years ago . . . Then the idea of a grand new layout—something that would be a credit to the Islands—was conceived . . . But, where was the money to come from? . . . Everyone could see the advantages and the pleasure to be realized from such a club . . . But there weren't many willing to go on the line for part of the 'freight' . . . Excepting for the persistency of a certain few—particularly the organization's livewire president, who was determined to see a dream become a reality—the project might have gone on the rocks . . . Today, the Outrigger Canoe Club is officially opening its new clubhouse . . . Congratulations are in order to the OCC and especially to its president, Walter Macfarlane, the man who was behind the guns.
