

Opening of New Outrigger Club Is Gala Event

To the accompaniment of clicking movie cameras, surf races and hulas, the new buildings and grounds of the Outrigger Canoe club at Waikiki were opened formally Wednesday in one of the gayest celebrations of Kamehameha Day.

Highlighting a crowded day of events was the presentation of new club buildings to Walter J. Macfarlane, club president. Presentation was made in the evening by Leslie A. Hicks, representing the board of directors.

Kamaainas Speak

Brief talks were made during the evening by outstanding kamaaina club members, including Lorrin P. Thurston, Duke Kahanamoku, Helen Moses Cassidy, Mariechen Wehse-lau Jackson, Jack McKenzie and Ernest Stenberg.

Webley Edwards, manager of KGMB, was chairman of entertainment and master of ceremonies.

Activities started at 1 p. m. with an inspection of club facilities, later moving into a series of beach and surf contests an hour later.

Hundreds visited the Outrigger lounge building and crowded the sands before the club to cheer their
