

Some of the oldtimers at the Outrigger Canoe club are complaining because a charge is being made for youngsters using two old canoes which have been kept, in the past, on purpose to train the youngsters. They feel that if the boys are not encouraged to learn how to handle the canoes there may be a shortage, in a few years, of capable beach boys to take the tourists out.

---