

Congratulations Are in Order

Congratulations are in order today for the following who are celebrating their birthdays:

Ben Seelig, wholesale and retail liquor dealer. He was born in New York city, but has lived in the islands for 25 years.

Henry H. Williams, accountant for the department of public instruction and formerly prominent in regatta events as coach of the Myrtle crew. He was born on this island and educated at Punahou.

Lewis E. Haehnlén, manager of the Outrigger Canoe club. He was born in California but came to Honolulu in 1906, being for 18 years with the auditor's office at the Alexander Young hotel. In his younger days he was a trapeze performer in a circus.
