

Regatta Races

(Continued from Page 7)

ing at 10 o'clock at the boathouse. Plans for the coming regatta will be discussed.

The Japanese and the Myrtle oarsmen have been holding light training sessions right along and they will swing into serious training next Monday. The Healanis will not lose any time either.

As soon as they establish themselves at the boathouse, the Navy oarsmen will also start priming themselves.