

Canoes Set, Await Gun

Handicaps Given to Six Outriggers for Waikiki Race Sunday

The outrigger canoe fleet will compete for the Leo Kupina'i trophy and for the first leg of the Royal Hawaiian hotel grand prize. Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. The start and finish of the race will be right on the beach in front of Outrigger Canoe club.

The course has been so laid out that the entire contest will be in full view of the spectators. Wylie Mather's cabin cruiser will be used as committee boat. Tommy Kearns and Jack Bowden will assist him as clerk of the course and judges.

Handicaps are:

Ka Moi, Waikiki Beach Patrol entry and skippered by Sally Hale is the scratch boat.

Hoonau, Gordon Fischer

(Continued on Page 9)