

Cromwell In Big Race

Enters Lahilahi for Second Outrigger Event On Sunday

Starting from Waikiki beach at 10 o'clock Sunday, the second event in the series of outrigger canoe sailing races will get under way. The winner will be awarded the Eastman Kodak trophy besides piling up points for the grand prize.

The Lahilahi, skippered by Sam Kahanamoku with Doris Duke Cromwell, Sergeant Kahanamoku and Melvin Paoa as crew is entered. This brings the total to seven canoes whose present standing in the series is as follows:

First, The Ka Moi six points.

Second, the Hoonau nau five points.

Third, Nukunuku four points.

Fourth, the U-Telling-Me three points.

Eastman Kodak company has donated space in their store at Waikiki for a display of trophies and prizes. Also the Leo Kupina'i studio has donated the use of a public address system which they will install at the Outrigger canoe club lanai so that the public will be better able to follow the progress of the events.

Wylie Mather has donated the use of his cabin cruiser as committee boat. He will be assisted by Jack Bowen and Tommy Kearns as clerk and judges.