

G. SMITH LEADS ALL WAY TO WIN SURFBOARD RACE

Kiakona Steers Outrigger Canoe Eleu Across Line To Victory—Record Waikiki Beach Crowd On Hand for Championship Events

Gene Smith jumped away to an early lead and held the pace to the finish to win the two mile paddle board feature race of the third annual surfing championships at Waikiki yesterday before a record gallery parked, in front of the Moana hotel.

Smith won in fast time and finished ahead of Dick Cross and Joe Pang.

Tommy Keakona steered the outrigger canoe Eleu to victory ahead of Bill Brooks with Club No. 3 second, and Patches third.

The open surfing championships and the tandem events were postponed because of insufficient surf.

Master of ceremonies was Hiram Anahu and his Hawaiian music. The results:

One mile paddle, boys under 16—Won by Paul Villias, Dick Cross, second; James Soong, third; Jack Cross, fourth.

Two mile paddle—Won by Gene "Tarzan" Smith, Dick Cross, second; Joe Pang, third; Jack Cross, fourth; David Kealakolina, fifth.

Outrigger canoe race — Won by "Eleu", with crew of Tommy Keakona, Capt.; Joe Pang, Gene Smith, James Soong, Gene Frosyth, Turkey Love. Club No. 3, second, Bill Brooks, Capt.; Jack Hague, Oscar Sorensen, Jim McGrew, Mason Sheldon, Jack Cross. "Patches" third, John Ernstberg, Capt.; Ed McPherson, Akong Pang, Awana, Mullet, George Stepp.

Shak Wins Chinese Play

Score Net 67 to Annex Wo Fat Trophy At Moanalua

William Shak, scoring an 82-15—67, won the Honolulu Chinese Golf Club tournament for the Wo Fat trophy at Moanalua yesterday. William Hong with a 77-7—70 was second.

M. S. Chong and C. Jim tied for