

Ka Moi Cops Grand Prize

The Ka Moi, Waikiki Beach patrol's entry in the outrigger canoe sailing race series, copped the grand prize yesterday as it breezed home an easy winner in the third and final event of the three race series.

Victory yesterday for the Ka Moi enabled her to win the Royal Hawaiian hotel trophy for winning the greatest number of points in the series. The Tommy Kearns trophy also went to the victors.

Jack Bowden also presented individual awards to crew members of the Ka Moi.

Gordon Fischer's Hoonau placed second in yesterday's six mile event with the Nukunuku coming in third. John Ernstberg's U-Telling-Me was fourth.

Winning time of the Ka Moi yesterday set a new record for the distance as the Waikiki Beach patrol entry did the course in one hour, three minutes.

The Ka Moi finished 16 minutes ahead of Fischer's second place Hoonau.

Mrs. Doris Duke Cromwell's Lahilahi again experienced trouble with her jib in the brisk wind but managed nevertheless to limp home ahead of Charlie Amalu's Keeau-moku.
