

Henry de Gorog Named Manager Of Outrigger Club

Appointment of Henry R. de Gorog as manager of the Outrigger Canoe club is announced. He succeeds Jack Bowden.

Mr. de Gorog has had much experience as a hotel man. After working in the Sir Francis Drake hotel in San Francisco and the St. Francis hotel, he came to Honolulu in 1937. He worked at the Royal Hawaiian hotel as assistant manager and also as temporary manager of the Waialae Golf club.

He has plans for members' private parties, fashion shows for the ladies every Tuesday and concerts every Sunday evening.

He urges that every active member make full use of the facilities of the club. The club will also have breakfast every Sunday morning and will be open every day of the year.

He will act as general manager of the whole club as one unit.
