

'Walter Mac' Reported Soon To Be Benedict

One of Hawaii's best known bachelors is about to turn benedict, according to reports received here by friends and family.

He is Rep. Walter J. Macfarlane, who left November 7 for Los Angeles to keep an important date with Miss Audrey Hughes.

Miss Hughes, an attractive young artist who spent the past year and a half in Honolulu, left several weeks before Mr. Macfarlane's departure for her home in Los Angeles.

According to Mr. Macfarlane word received here, the wedding will take place December 7 on the coast and the couple will return to the islands to make their home.

Mr. Macfarlane is the son of Mrs. Kamokila Campbell and a member of a pioneer island family.

He is a Republican member of the house of representatives from the 4th district, Oahu, and is a member of the advertising firm of Bowman Holst Macfarlane Richardson, Ltd.