

Gay Lei Day At Outrigger

Catching the spirit of the good old days before the war troubled Hawaii's shores, the Outrigger club held its Lei Day dance for members and guests May 1 at 5:30 p. m.

The party was informal, and every man was made to wear an aloha shirt. Many of the women had holokus and leis that they had made.

Bob Fischer was master of ceremonies and encouraged spontaneous entertainment after a plentiful buffet dinner was served. Music was provided by Elmer Lee's group and by a new group of musicians. The newly formed orchestra consists of Pete Dillingham, "Mystery" Tockett, Kalakaua Aylett, Peter Howell and Bob Fischer.

One of the features of the evening was the introduction of a new song, theme song of the newly formed orchestral group, a love song with a Hawaiian theme, When Evening Falls, sung by Miss Roselle Robinson. The song was written by Melvin Paoa, now in the south Pacific.

Lt. Cmdr. John McCrea, USN, brother of actor Joel McCrea, sang two selections, Old Plantation and Stardust.

Hulas were plentiful, and among those obliging were Roselle Robinson, Norah Ahuna, Chick Daniels, Mrs. Lloyd Conkling joined by John Gomez, Mrs. Sargent H. Kahanamoku, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Kaupiko Jr. and others.

..

Guests included Lt. Col. and Mrs. John J. Kestly, Lt. Cmdr. John McCrea, USN, Mr. and Mrs. Edward G. Buehler, Mr. and Mrs. Duke Kahanamoku, Judge and Mrs. Louis Le Baron, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Hiberley and Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Fischer.

At the end of the party all the guests joined in a finale of To You Sweetheart Aloha and Aloha Oe.

The dance was made possible by Henry De Gorog, club manager, assisted by the entertainment committee, headed by Ernest W. Stenberg, and Bob Fischer, club captain.
