

Beach Boys Teach Art Of Surfboard

"Bronze gods of the sea" once more are riding the waves of Waikiki, guiding the visitor on the tricky surfboard, teaching him the songs and dances of Hawaii, and telling the legends of old Hawaii.

The famous beach boys are on the scene, giving Waikiki the typical island touch known to visitors from around the world.

* * *

KNOWN officially now as the Surfers, sponsored by the Outrigger Canoe club located between the two great hotels, Royal Hawaiian and Moana, the boys offer outrigger canoe riding, surfing, glassbottom boating, sailing, spear fishing, lomi-lomi (Hawaiian style massage), music lessons and hula dancing.

* * *

THE SURFERS are using the facilities of the Outrigger club for their activities. The Surfer's uniform features blue trunks with red and white stripes and yellow shirts with the Outrigger club emblem.

All visitors may use the services offered by the Surfers. Arrangements may be made by telephoning the club.