

Outrigger Club To Open For Service Men

Beginning Monday, Jan. 5, the Outrigger canoe club will be opened for the use of service men daily except Saturdays and Sundays from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. The former navy hostesses, with Mrs. Wayne Pflueger, chairman, and her assistants, Mrs. James R. Judd, Mrs. Edward Carpenter, Mrs. Harold Dillingham and Mrs. Robbins A. Anderson, will become the Waikiki hostesses for service personnel as their contribution to the defense recreation and morale program.

Privileges of lockerrooms, swim suits and towels at the Moana bathhouse will be provided and light refreshments served at a nominal sum.

Hostesses will be on hand every day. Games, swimming and music will be offered as diversions.

Working in close cooperation with this committee will be the USO, with headquarters at the Army and Navy Y.
