

TWICE TOLD TALES

Taken from The Star-Bulletin Files
of 10, 20 and 30 Years Ago

THIRTY YEARS AGO

Rough seas at Lahaina result in the capsizing of a fully loaded ship's boat and the swamping of two whaleboats. A large shipment of hardwood railway ties from Hawaii arrives.

The Outrigger Canoe club gives impetus to a new industry in Hawaii in its order for folding steamer chairs made of ohia. Inter-Island officials have ordered similar ohia chairs for the steamer Maura Kea.