

Kamehameha Day Events At Outrigger

Celebrating a double occasion, the Outrigger Canoe club is preparing for an active weekend of sports and social events.

The occasion will mark observance of Kamehameha Day Friday and the second anniversary of the opening of the new club buildings.

Festivities will open with outrigger canoe races at 1 p. m. Saturday. A dinner and dance will follow at 5 p. m.

Taking part in the canoe races will be Duke Kahanamoku, Charlie Amalu, Willie Whittle, Tommy Arnott, Tommy O'Brien, Henry De Gorog and others.

On Sunday there will be more canoe races, plus surfing, through cooperation of the canoe club, Hawaii Surfing association and the Honolulu Junior Chamber of Commerce. Volleyball contests will round out Sunday's program.
