

Outrigger Club To Honor Founder

On Sunday, April 2, a party will be held at the Outrigger Canoe club to honor its founder, Alexander (Pop) Hume Ford. This day has been chosen as it is his birthday.

The party will begin at 9:30 a. m. when the canoe committee, led by Chairman Bob Fisher, assisted by members, will give free canoe surf rides to all members and guests.

At 11:30 a. m. Pop Ford will hold an informal reception on the Hau Terrace, where he will meet the youngsters of the club and, assisted by the club's old caretaker, Sasaki, serve ice cream cones to his guests.

From 1 to 3 p. m. there will be dancing on the Sun Terrace for junior members. This event, free to members and guests, is in charge of Patty Bush and Bobby Ratz.

A dinner dance will be held from 5 p. m. to 9 p. m. in honor of Mr. Ford. A feature of this event will be a gathering of the old time charter members. Jack McKenzie and George (Dad) Center have invited some 30 of the original members who will attend. Master of ceremonies will be the current president, Leslie Hicks. Newly elected directors of the club, committee members and many notables of Hawaii, will be present.

The dinner dance will be the first general get together of club members since the opening party in 1941. A large attendance is anticipated and will be for members only. Reservations must be made in advance with Henry De Gorogg, manager, who is in charge of all catering and seating arrangements.

Members are notified that the ordinary dining room facilities of the day will be curtailed. Breakfast and luncheon will be served as usual, but no dinners except to those making reservations to the dinner dance.
