

Outrigger Team Wins Feature Canoe Event

The Kalakaua trophy, donated by The Honolulu Star-Bulletin, went to the Outrigger Canoe club for their victory in the open men's canoe race, which highlighted the Honolulu Junior Chamber of Commerce aquatic events at Waikiki Sunday afternoon.

The Outriggers had Capt. Molokai at the helm, with Jim Fernie, Bob Rotz, Den Holt, Bill Cassey and Tom Arnot Stansman as the other members of the crew. Hui Nalu was second.

The results of the day follow:

Men's open outrigger canoe race—First, Gene Smith; second, Joe Pung; third, David Kalukiokalani.

Wahine canoe race—First, Blue Makua, steersman; second, Bob Fisher, steersman.

Triangular surfboard paddle—First, Gene Smith; second, Al Kekai; third, David Kalukiokalani; fourth, Lyons; fifth, Todd; sixth, Keaner; seventh, Watanabe.

Service men's canoe race—First, headquarters, 4th armored group, with crew of Lawrence Bryant, David Cockrell, Nathan Shatten, Grossenor Ball, Linus Rodens and Blue Makua.

Tandem surfboard paddle—First, Al Kekai and Joan Kahanamoku; second, Hinia Louis and Judy Kaa; third, Ed Whaley and Lorenz Arnold.

Junior surfboard paddle—First, Fred Sakuma; second, Marion Medeiros; third, Sam Kaminau.

Junior canoe race—First, Hui Nalu crew—Sunny Young, Carl Rose, Joseph Kepoo, Jerome Silva, Moses Moepone, Adrian McPherson.

Miss Pearl Stone of the Kodak Hawaii was declared Miss Waikiki, winning this title from 12 other entrants. Miss Stone was the recipient of the Princess Kalulani perpetual trophy and $150 in war bonds.

The complete list of entries follows:

Miss Pearl Stone, Kodak Hawaii; Miss Dorothy Daye, Angelos; Miss Lei Becker, Kewalo; Miss Betty King, Annie's lei stand; Miss Elizabeth Morse, Junior Hawaiian Civic club; Miss May Moniz, Maluhia; Miss Anita Morris, CHA-3; Miss Eleanor Ho, The Breakers; Miss Gwyneth Call, Sutherland's ice cream; Miss Althea Ferreira, U. S. engineers, Punahou; Miss Bobbie Robello, "Bobbie's Bob Ann"; Miss Mary Montizu, HAD; Miss Felice Seneris, war bond office, NYPH.

5 Minute Relief
For Itchy Skin