

July 4 Dance At Outrigger

The Outrigger Canoe club will have another of its colorful dinner dances for its members July 4.

All men attending will be requested to wear aloha shirts, and women will wear holokus and leis. Spontaneous entertainment will be the feature of the evening, as it was for the Lei Day dance. Guests must be prepared to be asked to sing, do the hula or entertain in any way they can.

The spirit of Hawaiian fun, for which the Outrigger parties were famous before the war, will prevail for the evening. The Lei Day dance was the first of its type since the war, and it is hoped that the Fourth of July dance will be even more successful.

The club's orchestra will provide the music for dancing.
