

Wongs, Kim Chows Win In Netfests

Two fast games were played Wednesday night in the junior AAU volleyball league at the Central Y. The Kim Chows took the measure of the Coast Guard in two sets 15-3 and 15-5.

In a well-played game the Wong's AC triumphed over the Kilowatts, 15-10 and 15-7. With the lead see-sawing back and forth the Wong's superiority asserted itself in the final stages of both sets. Lundberg, Naleieha, Dolan, George Young and Jackie Kim stood out for the winners while the Naluai boys, H. Johnson and Ambrose Bridges played well for the losers.

The Kamaainas won on a forfeit from the Campus AC in the third game.

Tonight at the Central Y the Firemen and Ewa teams clash at 6 p.m. while at 7 p.m. Kim Chow and Outrigger come to grips.
