

OCC Sweeps Canoe Races

Sweeping nine first places in 14 events the Outrigger Canoe Club completely dominated the annual Walter MacFarlane canoe races held yesterday at Waikiki beach before several thousands of spectators.

Duke Kahanamoku captained the Outrigger crew that captured the blue ribbon event, the six-man senior race in the fast time of 26 minutes 26.9 seconds. The Beach Patrol with Blue Makua at the helm finished second while the the helm finished second while the Royal Hawaiian Hotel and Hui Nalu trailed in that order.

Bob Fischer and Harry Shupack of Outrigger scored victory in the two-man open race while the OCC also triumphed in the relay.

Both girls' canoe events were won by Outrigger. Gene Smith annexed first place in the open surfboard paddling.

The Beach Patrol won the junior 6-man and the kids events while the servicemen 6-man race went to Outrigger.

In a special junior 4-man event, W. Cooke steered the OCC to another win. Cross of Hale Kai took top honors in the solid board surfing race.
