

TO BE HONORED TONIGHT—Bill Smith Jr., Hawaii's own and the greatest swimmer in the world today, who will be honored at an Aloha dinner by local sports enthusiasts this evening at the Outrigger Canoe Club. The Hawaiian aquatic star, who holds more world's marks than any other merman in history of swimming, is now in the navy and arrived recently for assignment with the 14th Naval District where he is an instructor in swimming. This evening's banquet starts at 5 p.m.