

Bill Smith

(Continued from Page 6)

presented to him last night.

President Gregg M. Sinclair of the University of Hawaii delivered the main address of the festivities. He recounted some of Smith's achievements. He also indicated the strong aquatic plans for the University after the war.

Smith recently returned here from Ohio State and Great Lakes and is stationed at the 14th Naval District where he is an instructor in swimming.