

GOVERNOR WELCOMES HOME CHAMP—Governor Ingram M. Stainback is shown above presenting Bill Smith, Jr., Hawaii's world swim champ, with a platinum wrist watch after welcoming him home at a testimonial dinner in the star's honor Monday night at the Outrigger club. Now a swimming instructor in the navy, young Smith was away for several years attending college at Ohio State before entering the navy in 1943.