

Outrigger Names Nine Directors

More than 300 senior members attended the annual membership meeting of the Outrigger Canoe club Wednesday night.

Elected as directors are Stafford L. Austin, Dr. Irving Blom, Maj. Samuel Fuller, Wilford D. Godbold, Leslie A. Hicks, Sheriff Duke P. Kahanamoku, Justice Louise Le Baron, Harold A. Mountain and Thomas G. Singlehurst.

All directors are incumbents except Mr. Austin, who will serve his first term.

Mr. Singlehurst, secretary-treasurer, reported the club is on an excellent financial basis, with resources guaranteeing the club's permanent future.

During 1944 the club redeemed the last of its bonds, totaling $71,500.

Two amendments to the bylaws were adopted. The first increases the board of directors from 9 to 11 members, beginning in 1946. Six will serve two years and five one year, with a view to carrying over veteran directors from year to year.

The second creates an advisory committee to set up a building fund, derived from the club's net receipts.

A buffet supper was served under the direction of Henry De Gorog, club manager. The Outrigger club's serenaders entertained.
