

Big Field In Y Slam Loop

The Central Y. doubles volleyball tournament to be held March 19 has created a lot of interest among volleyball players and a large field is expected by the time entries close on March 12th.

A group of six teams is expected from the Outrigger Club, four from the Gaspro, some from Nuuanu Y and a large group from Central Y as well as many unattached.

This tournament will serve as a warm-up for the regular volleyball season which will get under way early in May.

The Volleyball Committee will meet on March 13 to make the drawings for the doubles meet and also to complete plans for the Junior and Senior leagues.

Entry blanks may be obtained at the Program and Physical offices of the Central Y.M.C.A.
