

Pauoas, McInernys Are Victors In Jr. Recreation Cagefests

Pauoa AC, sponsored by Canada Dry, beat the strong Boulevard Bees, 39 to 34, in an extra period game of junior recreation basketball loop at Waldron court.

Towering Edwin Kiyota paced the Pauoans, lacing the nets for 11 markers, while A. Fraga and G. Young netted 10 points each. For the losers Gil Carreira was the high scorer with 14.

McInerny Monarchs copped a double victory by taking Outrigger Canoe Club, 39 to 20, and Boulevard Aces, 62 to 55. Donald Fong and R. Shimamura paced the first win with 14 and 11 respectively.

The BAC Bees annexed their second win in three starts by taming Good Earth hoopsters, 43 to 29. Chico Miyashiro sparked the Ka-kaako quint, collecting 13 points. For the cafe team, D. Meyer came through with 18 points.
