

FIVE TEAMS TO VIE IN HALF MILER

By JOE ANZIVINO

Servicewomen now stationed on Oahu will compete against each other in a five woman outrigger canoe race Sunday afternoon at Waikiki beach in the feature attraction of a 12 event program arranged by the Outrigger Canoe club.

Teams from the WACs, WAVES, SPARs, women marines and the National Red Cross in this unique presentation will cut through the Waikiki waters in quest of the top prize in a half mile affair. The event will come off sixth on the program.

Kaiopua club, a new beach organization skippered by A. K. Pang, will be fighting for top honors against aggregations from the army, navy, Hui Nalu and Outrigger Canoe club.

#

The Kaiopua crew will use the canoes Kaulani and Kaiopua, Hui Nalu's entry is the Leo Kekeo (White Horse), while the Outrigger club will rest their hopes on Leilani and Kakina.

#

Here is the order of events set for Sunday. Starting time is 1:30 p. m.

Service six men race.

Kids six paddle race.

Junior six paddle canoe race.

Service six men (officers only).

Senior six men race.

Servicewomen race.

Boys under 12 years.

Girls six paddle race (open).

Senior two paddle med (open).

Girls four paddle (open).

Senior two paddle men (open).

Relay canote race (12 men to each crew).