

Big Canoe Race Program Sunday At Waikiki Beach

Thousands of spectators are expected to gather at Waikiki beach tomorrow afternoon to witness the revival of Hawaii's famous aquatic sports at the Walter Macfarlane memorial canoe races, sponsored by the Outrigger canoe club.

Twelve events, highlighted by two special contests, are on the menu starting at 1:30 p. m.

The featured events include a servicewomen five paddle canoe race, with crews from the WACs, WAVEs, SPARs, women marines and National Red Cross entered, and a special six paddle canoe race for boys under 12 years of age.

#

Courses in the special attractions will be announced at race time.

Other races billed for the attractive beach program include a service six men canoe race (enlisted), Kid's six paddle canoe race (under 16), Junior six paddle canoe race, service six men canoe race (officers).

Girls' six paddle canoe race (open), senior two men canoe race (open), girls' four paddle canoe race (open), senior women's four paddle canoe race and relay canoe race (12 men each canoe).