

Duke Kahanamoku Leads Outrigger Crew To Win Feature Canoe Race

By JOE ANZIVINO

ON THE BEACH AT WAIKIKI, July 8.—A variety of 12 outrigger canoe races revived Hawaii's famous aquatic sports here this afternoon during the Walter Macfarlane memorial races.

Sponsored by the Outrigger Canoe club, the big splash today attracted some 3,000 spectators.

The Walter Macfarlane perpetual trophy went to the OCC as the great Duke Kahanamoku brought home the Leilani in 33 minutes 17.7 seconds in the blue ribbon event.

Members of the winning crew included Thad Ekstrand, J. Fernie, C. Rivas, T. Arnott, T. O'Brien and Duke Kahanamoku.

Signe Hill, Ruth Hurd, Bertha Schultz, Natalie Slack and Margaret Upton comprised the winning crew, with veteran Charles Amalu as their steersman.

Following the three and a half hour canoe program, attractive trophies were presented to winners of each event.

Here is a complete order of races with winners and times in each event:
