

Dance at Outrigger

The Outrigger Canoe club will have a dinner dance in celebration of Regatta Day on September 15.

Music will be provided by Al Kealoha Perry's Singing Surfriders and entertainment will be spontaneous from the guests.

Women will wear holokus and leis and men are requested to wear colorful sports shirts.

Henry DeGorog, manager of the club, is on three months leave of absence on the mainland where he is putting his daughter in school.

During his absence the club has engaged Gay Harris, well known Olympic swimmer and kamaaina.
