

Outrigger Club Plans Impromptu Races Saturday

Gay Harris, assistant manager at the Outrigger Canoe club, announced today that the organization is planning to conduct impromptu canoe paddling races at Waikiki beach this Saturday in observance of Regatta Day.

The events, which will be for members and their guests, will be staged between 1:30 and 5 p. m. During the program members and their families will be taken for rides in canoes and sail boats.

Many oldtimers of the club, including Duke P. Kahanamoku, head of the sailing committee; George D. (Dad) Center, in charge of canoes, and Charles Amalu, will be on hand to supervise activities.

Miss Jean Reichard of the women's committee also will be on hand to assist.

In the evening a dinner and dance will be held at the club's pavilion.
