Big Isle Swimmers Hit Town

Two of Hilo's invading swim quintet hit town yesterday; the remaining three are scheduled to arrive here Friday for the Hawaiian AAU novice and the Star-Bulletin distance championship aquatic meet Saturday and Sunday night at the Waikiki War Memorial natatorium.

Big Islanders who got in town Tuesday were freestyler-breast-stroker Noriyoshi Murata and backstroke-freestyler Yoshinobu Terada.

Hawaii swimmers slated to reach town Friday are Kazuaki Miyashita, freestyler; Kengo Hatada, freestyler and breastroker and Kiyoto Mizuba, freestyler.

Joe Johnson, chairman of the AAU swimming committee, announced that trials will be held in the following events at 5 p. m. Friday at the natatorium:

The 200 meter men novice freestyle for boys and the 400 meter freestyle relay.

Trials will be held Saturday at 5 p. m. for the following events:

Fifty meter backstroke for boys; 50 meter freestyle novice for women; 100 meter freestyle for boys and the 100 meter freestyle men's novice.

The Big Island Athletic Union, headed by John Beukema, is sponsoring the Honolulu trip for its Crescent City swimmers.

There'll be no admission charge to the combined two night Star-Bulletin distance championship and Hawaiian AAU novice title meet. The program starts at 7 p. m.

It was announced today that the deadline for the Star-Bulletin half mile women's open, the one half mile men's junior and the one mile open men's championship races have been extended up to the starting times of these events.

Both the one half mile women's and men's freestyle are on the Friday program with the one mile open race taking place Saturday.
