

Ford Rites Today At Outrigger Club

Memorial services for Alexander Hume Ford, 77, founder of the Pan-Pacific Union, Outrigger Canoe club and Trail & Mountain club, and who died here Sunday, will be held at 4:30 this afternoon at the Outrigger club, Kalakaua Ave.

The Rev. Henry P. Judd, and Dr. E. Tanner Brown of St. Clement's Episcopal church, will officiate.

A brief eulogy will be delivered by Riley H. Allen, editor of The Honolulu Star-Bulletin, and the Honolulu Girls' Glee club will sing.

Directors of the Outrigger club will be honorary pallbearers.

The ashes will be sent to Mrs. F. W. Ford, a sister in law, in Georgetown, S. C., for interment. Borthwick's mortuary is in charge of arrangements.
