

Kam Day Aquatic Program Goes Over In Fine Style

Marking the celebration of Kamehameha Day yesterday the Outrigger Canoe Club staged a gala aquatic program at Waikiki beach. The enthusiastic reception given the events was hailed as a definite indication that surfboard and paddling will soon attain prewar activity.

Yesterday's program, handled by Gay Harris of the Outrigger, featured a variety of races.

Wingmen Rout Fleet Marines

Joe Gordon blasted two home runs and a single to pace the attack as the Wheeler Wings outslugged the Fleet Marines, 15-6, in an exhibition played before nearly 15,000 fans at Furlong Field Saturday afternoon.

The Army stars clubbed Bob Revels from the mound, and then punched Oren Baker off the knob almost as fast, scoring five runs in each of the first two innings. George Staller's long home run over the right field bleachers was the big swat for the Marines.

The most sensational fielding play seen on the island in many moons happened in the first of the third inning when Ray Palmer raced into leftfield and made a sensational diving stab of a low drooping ball, which appeared to be good for at least two bases. Palmer took the ball in the webbing of his glove and slid on the turf after executing the play.

Iroquois Edge Flyers, 4 to 3

The Iroquois from Ft. Hase defeated Ted Lyon's Marine Flyers, 4-3, by scoring two runs in the last half of the 11th inning, in a game played at Ft. Hase Saturday afternoon. Trailing by one run, the Iroquois loaded the bases and then Frank Celona scored the tying run when pitcher Hal Jungbluth walked Norm Symsack. Ed Fleck then
