

Surfers, Canoe Paddlers Thrill 3,000 At Waikiki Aquatic Races

By JOE ANZIVINO

ON THE BEACH AT WAIKIKI, June 10.—Three thousand fans, a great many of them malihini servicemen, jammed the shores here this afternoon to witness 11 outrigger canoe and surfboard races in a revival of Hawaii's famous aquatic sports.

The colorful events were sponsored by the Outrigger Canoe club and featured two of Hawaii's outstanding swim champions, Duke Kahanamoku and young Bill Smith.

The Duke was steersman for the victorious crew in the women's six canoe race, while Bill gave a masterful exhibition through the choppy waves to easily capture the free for all men's swim.

Awards for all winners and second and third places will be made at a dinner at the Outrigger Canoe club Thursday evening, June 14. Starting time is 6 p. m. and all participants and officials are invited to attend.

Also at Thursday's gathering plans will be discussed for the big water aquatics to be held on July 4 in commemoration of the Walter Macfarlane memorial.

The Macfarlane perpetual trophy will again be fought for in a series of canoe, swimming and surfing events, with cups and trophies going to the winners.

Margaret Osborne Is New Net Champ

BERKELEY, Cal., June 11. (AP)—Margaret Osborne of San Francisco took the state women's single crown Sunday with a brilliant 6-4, 6-3 victory over Louise Brough of Beverly Hills, Cal., defending titlist.

Then the two stars, ranked number one nationally in doubles, teamed to easily defeat Jane Stanton Gallagher and Baba Lewis of Los Angeles, 6-1, 6-1, for the state championship.

With Lt. Ed Amark of San Francisco as a partner, Miss Osborne continued her topflight performance to
