

CANOE CLUB OPEN

The Outrigger Canoe club has announced that all facilities of the club are open to members regardless of the tidal wave.

Employees at the club reported that the canoes had been broken up by the waves and had been strewn around the sheds. The entire ground floor facing the water had suffered damage, they said, and the sliding doors had been broken.