

Weiller Looks Good In Handball Warmup Tilt

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6. (AP)—Planes from all parts of the United States and Hawaii reached here Sunday bearing contenders for the National AAU handball championships which get under way here today.

* * *
Jerry Weiller, Honolulu AAU singles champion, fresh off a NATS plane tangled with Joe Platak, defending National singles titlist up from Hollywood, in two warmup games winning the first 21-17 and dropping the second 21-15.

* * *
Jerry and his brother Bob, who was coholder with Platak of the National doubles championship in

Race Driver Killed At Indiana Track

CROWN POINT, Ind., May 5. (U.P.)—One race driver was killed and two others injured seriously today in three crashes at the opening of 1937, represent the Honolulu Out-rigger Canoe club. Both are exporters. Duke Kahanamoku, the famous swimmer, is club handball coach. He arrived last night and not only will direct his team at the tournament but will try to interest swimmers and team sport aggregations in establishing relations with Hawaii.

Weiller said the Hawaiian islands are "sports hungry."

* * *
Other outstanding players here for the tournament included Frank Coyle and Ed Linz from New York; Jack Enas, Philadelphia's middle Atlantic champion; Bill Benson and Ray Eldredge, who won Utah's doubles championship nine consecutive years; newspaperman Joaquin Martinez from Los Angeles, three times southern California champion, and Alex Trompas, San Diego titlist.

* * *
Earl Heinrich, champion of the Manila and Far East armed forces, is one of San Francisco's representatives.