

Canoe Trials Slated Today On Ala Wai

Trials in four men's paddling events for the Kamehameha Day canoe paddling regatta will be held this morning at the Ala Wai canal at 9 o'clock. Eliminations are scheduled in the one mile senior 4-paddle, half mile senior 2-paddle, one mile junior 6-paddle and one mile junior 4-paddle events.

Entries for the finals on Tuesday, June 11, include crews from Kona, Hawaii, and Roosevelt high school. The Army crews in the junior division dropped out because of other duties.

Eleven races are on the program on Kamehameha Day under the sponsorship of the Kamehameha Day celebration commission which is working through the Kamaaina Beachcombers' Hui.

The Outrigger is entering two crews in the senior 4-paddle and senior 2-paddle events. Only one crew from each club will be permitted in the finals, so the crews are meeting in the trials today.

The entries for the various events follow:

One mile senior 6-paddle—Hui Nalu, Natatorium, Outrigger and Kona.

One mile senior 4-paddle—Hui Nalu, Natatorium, Kona and two crews from Outrigger (one to be eliminated today).
