

#

Rowing takes the spotlight for a couple of hours Thursday morning as crews from at least four clubs participate in a regatta on the Ala Wai.

At the same time the Outrigger Canoe club will be staging its annual open water swims for its men and women members. Manager Gay Harris of the organization stated there will be five events with attractive prizes awarded the winners.