

Doubles Net Entries Open

Entries for the Central Y doubles volleyball tournament will close on Feb. 18 and play will begin on Wednesday, Feb. 20, it was announced by Ward Brewster, chairman of the YMCA-AAU Volleyball Committee.

To date there are 12 teams entered in this event which attracted 24 teams last year.

The defending champs of last year, the Waldo Bowman-Lloyd Chiswick combination have not entered as yet.

There is considerable rivalry in this event between the Central Y teams and the Outrigger Canoe Club squads and there is always some tough combination from the Firemen as well as the strong Filipino duets.
