

LAST ALOHA—The Rev. Henry Judd read the burial service in the top photo as beach boy mates of Sam Colgate carried his ashes out to sea yesterday in outriggers to scatter them on the water. Left to right in the picture are Ronald, David, Mrs. Colgate and Norman, Colgate's family survivors; Rev. Judd, Joe Akana, holding the urn with the ashes; and Sally Hale. In the bottom photo are shown part of the 10 outriggers which formed the funeral fleet to carry the ashes off the reefs of Waikiki beach. (Advertiser photos.)