

Outrigger Club Plans Events

The Outrigger Canoe club will hold a series of aquatic events followed by a novel presentation of prizes, called a hookupu, on Kamehameha Day, Wednesday, June 11. Club members will choose an Hawaiian couple to reign as king and queen for the day. They will view the events from a "court" to be erected on the beach by the club.

In the evening a Holoku Ball will be held at the Outrigger club, the Royal Hawaiian hotel and Club Pago Pago. The king and queen will arrive at the Outrigger in a regatta of canoes, and after a pageant on the beach at 8 p.m. will attend the three Holoku balls.
