Recommend 4 Trackmen For Nationals

AAU To Be Asked To Send Stars To Big Meet

A recommendation to send four track and field athletes and Coach Jack Begelman of the University of Hawaii to the National junior and senior championships will be made to the Hawaiian Association of the AAU, it was announced yesterday.

The athletes who will be recommended are George Uyeda, Bob Lambert, George Oakley, and Burt Hooper.

It was revealed by a special committee that sponsored the benefit track meet last Saturday at Alexander field to raise funds to send the outstanding local track and field men to the National championships netted $1,200.

The National championships will be held at Lincoln, Nebraska, the juniors being scheduled for July 3 and the seniors for
