

Four Canoe Clubs Set to Race at Waikiki Friday

Competition will prove keen Friday morning at 10 when four local outrigger organizations launch their craft in the fifth annual Walter Macfarlane Memorial Canoe races at Waikiki.

Eleven events are scheduled to be paddled on a triangular course in the ocean in front of the Outrigger Canoe club, which is sponsoring the meet.

* * *

The Outrigger Canoe club paddlers, coached by Duke Kahanamoku and A. E. Minvielle, copped the blue ribbon Kamehameha Day race and will be out to take the popular six man senior event Friday. The winners in this race will be awarded the Matson Perpetual trophy.

* * *

The Hui Nalus, members of the 30 year old Waikiki club, took seven of the 10 Kamehameha Day outrigger events and will show a top notch group coached by John D. Kaupiko.

The recently formed aquatic crew, the McCabe, Hamilton and Renny stevedores, coached by Joseph Akana, is the third organization listed on the roster.

* * *

A team tutored by Willie Whittle will represent the Junior Hawaiian Civic club.

* * *

Following the races, Wilford Godbold, president of the OCC, will award prizes to the winning crews in the clubhouse.

Hula dancers and musicians will entertain at the club in the afternoon and a holoku ball will be held that night in the dining room.

List of the events:

Junior men's, six paddle; Junior girls, six paddle; senior men's, four paddle; kids, six paddle; Junior men's, four paddle; senior girls, six paddle; boys, 12 and under; senior men's, six paddle; freshmen, six paddle; men over 40 and the two canoe relay.

Chinese Nine to Practice Today

The Honolulu Chinese Athletes baseball team, which is entered in the forthcoming Chinese Baseball league will hold its first meeting and workout at Lanakila field today at 5 p. m.

Manager Buck Lai announced that Freddy Meyer has been secured to coach the team again. All old and new players are urged to attend this meeting and workout.

No More Cycle Races

The Midpacific Motorcycle club announces that the races and practices held at Koko Head race track on the weekends have been discontinued.

LIGHTING

• Commercial • In