

Outrigger Canoe Club Sets Up Waikiki Service System

A skilled squad and standard fees have been set up at Waikiki beach for facilities for the entertainment, recreation and exercise of visitors and residents.

This resumes an organized activity which was of good service to those who frequented Waikiki prior to World war II. The war interrupted the activity and many of those engaged in it went into active service.

Now, with the renewed tourist trade, the Outrigger Canoe club has authorized a branch known as Outrigger Beach services.

Louis R. (Sally) Hale, a veteran of Waikiki, is the manager. Sally and the six men who presently are with him are experienced surf-riders or ex-surf-riders.

The Outrigger Canoe club hand-picked these men and they are

March Guide For Visitors

March 1—Golfing at Waialae, Honolulu. Ala Wai, Mid-Pacific clubs.

March 2—Surfing and outrigger canoe riding, instruction by arrangement with Outrigger Canoe club, telephone 91113.

Cruises from Ala Moana yacht harbor by arrangement. Telephone skippers Cruising club 93573, for information.

Royal Hawaiian band concert, 2:30 p. m., Kapiolani park.

March 3—Visit Queen Emma museum, under strict, competent supervision through Mr. Hale, chosen for their ability and for their interest in making the visitors' stay pleasant and enjoyable.

* * *

In addition to helping visitors and residents enjoy surfboard riding and canoe surfing the organization also provides men skilled in the art of lomi-lomi (Hawaiian massage) and swimming instructions.

Here's the schedule of charges for the various services, as provided through the Outrigger Canoe club:

Canoe surfing—$1.50 a passenger. Minimum charge $4.50.

Surfboard instruction—$3 a lesson.

Lomi-lomi—$3 each.

Beach umbrella with two lean-back chairs—$2 a day, $10 a week.

Surfboard rentals—$1 an hour for solid redwood boards; $2 for balsa and redwood boards. $3 for hollow boards.

Swimming lessons—$2.50 each; $13.50 for course of six lessons.

* * *

Plans are being formulated to expand the activities of the organization to include other sports such as spear fishing, movies and still picture surfing, canoe sailing, etc.

Detailed information can be procured by telephoning 91113 (catering division of the Outrigger Canoe club) between 7 a. m. and 5 p. m.