

Harris Resigns As Manager Of Club

Gay Harris, manager of the Outrigger Canoe Club during the past two and a half years, has resigned, effective immediately, to go into business for himself, it was announced Tuesday by Wilford D. Godbold, club president.

* * *

MR. HARRIS is one of Hawaii's best known aquatic stars of former years, having held several backstroke championships won at the Olympic Games.

Prior to accepting the post of manager of the Outrigger Canoe Club, he was associated for many years with the Hawaiian Electric Co.

* * *

MR. GODBOLD said that the finance committee of the club would carry on the management until a new professional manager is appointed.

Howard Ruggles, dining room catering manager, will continue in his present position.